

High School Examination Results – 2010

Annual and Supplementary Examination Analysis

Objective

- The objective of this analysis is to study the performance trends of various educational boards in the 2010 High School Examinations (Annual and Supplementary). It compares pass percentages, gender performance, and overall result distribution.

Top 10 Boards by Pass Percentage

Average Marks Distribution (All Boards)

Boys vs Girls Pass Percentage (Top 10 Boards)

Distribution of Pass Percentage across Boards

Key Insights

- - The majority of boards achieved pass percentages above 70%.
- - Girls generally outperformed boys across most boards.
- - Chhattisgarh Sanskriti Vidya Mandalam topped with the highest pass percentage.
- - About 38% of students scored below 50%, highlighting the need for academic improvement programs.

Conclusion

- This analysis provides insights into student performance across different education boards in the High School Examinations of 2010. It highlights top-performing boards, gender disparities, and overall result distributions, helping policymakers and educators improve future outcomes.